

and included in the Fall 2006 meeting. New officers included Tom Barnes as President (with his President's message), Pat Morgan as Vice President, and Amanda McKinney as Secretary. The only continuing officer is Kathleen Jones as Treasurer. New Executive Board members are Tara Lathford, and Alan Nations, with Dave Luvaglio and Job Mauer-continuing as board members. All the new officers and board members are greatly welcomed, and it is hoped that this new influx of people and ideas will be of great value in moving CCPC forward in the coming years.

Saturdays and drive long distances for sometimes very long board meetings. They are the ones that, when their terms run out in one office, are willing to commit to another position in order to continue to serve. They are the ones that always attend Spring and Fall meetings. They are the ones that year after year can be counted on to do their part. They have all given greatly of their time and effort, and even now, several will continue to
