

In June 1964, the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, U.S. Department of Agriculture, reported the first sighting of the "Asian citrus psyllid" in Florida by James H. ...

The Asian citrus psyllid is a small, winged insect, with antennae to the ...

The Asian citrus psyllid is a small, winged insect, with antennae to the ...